

Family News

~Lori Spencer is now home and doctors approved her to drive.

~John Comte, Jackie Ort's brother-in-law, has been on our prayer list for some time. He recently passed away.

~Nancy Rogers fainted and fell last Monday and had several stitches on her head. Doctors are concerned that the cause of her fainting is heart related and she is still in Resolute Hospital, room 358.

~Paul Meacham, a friend of Joseph's, was also on our prayer list for several months and passed away last Saturday.

~Ron Cone reports, that while he is doing well, he has decided to give notice that he is retiring from deviled egg duty on pot luck Sundays.

~Sunny Glen donations: pasta and canned fruit. Pick-up mid-January.

~Ladies Class will not meet between December 16 and January 6.

The class will meet this week (11th) and the next class will be January 8.

MINISTER'S MESSAGE

I Am Not Ashamed

“For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek. For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith for faith, as it is written, ‘The righteous shall live by faith.’”
Romans 1:16–17.

Are you ashamed of the gospel? Have you ever really asked yourself that question? What goes through your head when you are called upon to talk about Jesus or Christianity in public? Are you ashamed to bring up Jesus in a public conversation? When you hear people saying things about the Bible that are not true, do you have the courage to teach them what is correct?

How about another question. What are you proud of? Paul reminded the Galatians that he would only boast in the Lord. “But far be it from me to boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world” (Ga 6:14). We are pretty proud of our achievements and our earthly honors. A young lady loves to show off her new engagement ring. A Grandparent loves to display pictures of her grandchildren. A man loves to tell everyone about his new promotion at work. But are we just as excited and more so about the accomplishments of God?

“Let not the wise man boast in his wisdom, let not the mighty man boast in his might, let not the rich man boast in his riches, but let him who boasts boast in this, that he understands and knows me, that I am the LORD who practices steadfast love, justice, and righteousness in the earth. For in these things I delight, declares the LORD.”
Jeremiah 9:23–24.
